

ISHA Bucharest is happy to announce a new ISHA (International Students of History Association) event made in Bucharest. After the success of the 2011 event when History Students „Dacia” Association as ISHA Bucharest section organized the first international summer seminar –“Myths, Heroes and Identities”, we will also organize the seminar for this year.

The Seminar theme is “Symbols and figures of power” . The seminar consists of two big parts: the academic part and the cultural part. In the academic part, there will be 6 workshops and you can choose the one to be part of and in the sessions of the workshop every participant has to present an academic paper related to the subject. The cultural part consists of guided tours of Bucharest and a two days trip in the city Sibiu, European cultural capital in 2007 and Sighisoara, a medieval city.

Here are the 6 workshops you can choose from:

1. Religion in shifting the balance of power
2. Media and social media: tools of power (bilingual: English/French)
3. Inspiring leaders and leadership
4. Military strength and power’s enforcement
5. Leading actors of the international system
6. Art as symbol of power

The participation fee is 80€ (includes accommodation, three meals a day, local transport, as well as bus transfers during the excursion. It does not include drinks and travel costs to/from Bucharest).

The application period ends on the 6th of May. Fill in the application form and send it to bucharestseminar2012@asid-ub.ro.

On our website, <http://ishabucharest.asid-ub.ro/>, you will find all the information about the seminar, about the ISHA Bucharest team, about Bucharest and Romania.

For any other questions, don’t hesitate to ask us anything.

Yours Historically,

ISHA Bucharest
